For District Attorney
JNO. I. KLEIBER.

PLUMP BATHING SUITS.

Down on a sea-girt shore one day,
Three little maidens went to play,
And in the plumpest bathing suits
They gambled there—the tootsy-
woods.
Embraced within their clinging togs,
They sported, gay as pollywogs;
But modest maidens were the three,
And that no prying eyes might see
The grace so near divinity,
They set a spy upon the land—
And then by all that's good and grand—
Lifted there upon the horrid shore
They found his ribs, Jeff McLenore.
There was no crime in this 'tis true,
Whelp maidens from any point of view
Are snottier than a leaner crew)
Set Lord-a-massie, what a caper,
To put the "phat-take" in the paper.
—JIM GRAHAM.

Commissioners' Court.

The county commissioners' court met this morning at 10 o'clock in special session. Judge Forto stated that the object of the meeting was to appoint an officer to fill the vacancy caused by the death of S. A. Brito, late sheriff of Cameron county, and to consider the propriety of offering a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderers of said sheriff. He informed the court of the measures he had taken to ferret out the guilty parties, who had not only assassinated a brave officer, but who had also outraged the good name of Brownsville and Cameron county, and deprived an afflicted wife and children of the affection and support of a kind husband and father.

It was then suggested that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions of condolence, and Messrs. Thos. Carson, Jno. I. Kleiber, E. H. Goodrich, A. Vasquez, P. Perez, L. Kowalski and C. Tamayo were appointed on the committee. After this the court adjourned till 2 p. m.

"Carson Park" has been transformed into a lake. The ditch allowing the water from the river to run in has been closed, and the water will be allowed to stand until the ground is thoroughly soaked.

Judge E. C. Forto was today appointed by the county commissioners' court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late S. A. Brito.

Full particulars of the proceeding of county commissioners' court will be published in THE HERALD tomorrow.

Take note of the following from the Houston Post of June 5th:

Kaufman county's democratic executive committee has split in two, one faction having called a primary election which endorsed Hogg, and the other having called a delegated convention, which will send Clark delegates to Houston. A Kaufman Hogg club passed several resolutions declaring that if "by any contingency" these were seated and Judge Clark "should thereby be nominated for governor, we will not recognize or support him as the regular nominee of the democratic party."—Fort Worth Gazette.

This is strictly in line with the Hogg campaign idea. It is "our man or bust." The administrationists appear to claim Hogg's nomination as a matter of right, a right upon which they will insist, regardless of consequences either to the democratic party or the State of Texas.

Yet the Post maintains that it is democracy to submit to such a rule or ruin party simply because it is the biggest.

THE CAMPAIGN YEAR.

Everybody must have a reliable newspaper. THE "TWICE-A-WEEK" ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC will be a complete history of the important political events that will follow one another in quick succession from now on, until the fate of the great political parties is decided at the polls in November. The indications all point to a political revolution in the Government, unequalled since the election of Andrew Jackson in 1828, or that of Abraham Lincoln in 1860. All who desire to keep fully informed of the successive steps by which this impending revolution is wrought out, and the means by which the coming Democratic victory is won, will find THE "TWICE-A-WEEK" REPUBLIC indispensable. It is issued on Tuesday and Friday of every week, and its readers in every state of the Union will get the important news at least half a week earlier than any weekly paper can furnish it. At the same time, it challenges comparison with any weekly in its literary, agricultural and other special features, which go to make up a complete family paper, yet the price is ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. Subscribe now, or send for free sample copies. Address THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.
